

Steve Von Hoene – Principal, Founder

Steve founded Journey Learning with over 21 years of sales, management, and training experience with three industry leaders. Formerly the Vice President of National Accounts for Carew International, he enjoyed great success in a wide range of industries, consulting and facilitating sales, leadership, customer service, and financial literacy programs with Fortune 500 companies in the United States and abroad. Prior to Carew, Steve's rich experience with Cintas Corporation and Hubert Company gave him solid backgrounds in operational management and marketing.

In addition to developing outstanding content around critical sales, customer service, and management skills, Steve has formed partnerships with industry leaders to provide an array of employee development initiatives, tools, and capabilities to help organizations maximize the performance and job satisfaction of their people. With strategic relationships with JRS Learning Enterprises, Profiles International, Corporate Insights, The Carlson/Nathanson Group, K. Lyons & Associates, Pathway Guidance, The Writing Exchange, The Center for Leadership Studies, Veritas Training Group, and others, Steve brings a wealth of competence and commitment to help contribute to the success of his clients.

Steve's ability to blend his real-world experience and in-depth knowledge with Journey Learning's solid training offerings makes him an invaluable resource to their clients. His commitment to helping clients optimize their professional skills and corporate culture results in the highest level of performance and client satisfaction. His great sense of humor, high energy, and winning attitude ensure your colleagues will enjoy working with him, and will greatly benefit from his rich experience and knowledge. He has a Bachelor of Business Administration from the University of Cincinnati, as well as certification in numerous professional development programs.

"I love helping people get better at what they do. I find that people who are fortunate enough to be doing what they love, love to find ways to be better at it. It's a huge 'kick' to be able to improve someone's competence in a discipline, while at the same time, making the experience fun."
