

“If you don’t take care of your customers, someone else will.”

Ken Blanchard

It is eight times harder to find new customers than to keep the customers you’ve got. Journey Learning can help you do both. Our Customer-Facing Effectiveness programs focus on the skills necessary to achieve optimal success in sales and service with both your external and internal customers.

The following programs lead individuals and teams on their Journey to realizing optimal success in dealing with your customers and with each other.

Prospecting and Demand Creation™ (PDC)

In today’s competitive business environment, few organizations are able to maintain or grow their business by simply fulfilling the demand that comes to them. Proactive prospecting has become a survival issue for sales organizations. PDC is aimed at providing sales people and sales managers with a proven process, tools, and tactics for developing revenue from new opportunities with both new and existing customers. As a result of participating in this highly impactful program, employees will:

- Embrace a simple process by which they recognize the most productive measures for revenue growth.
- Categorize and measure each and every sales contact within a patented, visually-oriented, easily managed tool.
- Strategize, manage, and drive forward movement in the sales process.
- Project productivity results accurately.
- Hit income and revenue goals.
- Create a compelling message that will garner interest and involvement.
- Understand the keys to gaining access to prospective decision-makers.
- Develop a compelling message that will create interest and involvement.
- Gain access to key decision-makers.

Journey to Sales Success™ (JSS)

To be successful in selling, people must understand how to create a competitive edge while developing profitable relationships with customers and prospects. This exciting selling skills program emphasizes the key elements for leading a salesperson to greater selling success. JSS addresses critical sales issues in a straightforward, realistic, and highly participative way. Visual models support key skills, making them easy to remember, and therefore, easy to implement. Highly beneficial for experienced and new sales people alike, JSS will help participants:

- Create critical action plans for aligning with customers for short and long-term success.
- Construct strategic customer-development plans for maximizing profitability and revenue opportunities.
- Implement powerful questioning techniques to uncover customer needs and operational goals.
- Utilize impactful presentation methods for delivering meaningful, value-added messages.
- Understand distinctive communication styles and techniques for more effectively responding to objections, concerns, or questions.
- Execute comfortably with proven techniques for confidently and effectively closing the sale.
- Maximize creativity and competitive advantages in achieving optimal sales results.

Journey to Service Excellence™ (JSE)

Providing service excellence to customers is the hallmark of all successful organizations. This engaging program leads participants to a greater awareness of this principle by providing concrete, real-world applications to increase their ability to provide the excellent customer service required in today's business environments. JSE will help participants:

- Understand how a customer's perception can influence his/her level of satisfaction with an organization – which will dramatically affect future revenues and overall profitability.
- Learn how to serve each customer in ways meaningful to that customer in order to enhance the quality and strength of the business relationship.
- Utilize key listening and conflict resolution skills.
- Strategize ways to solve customers' problems and provide solutions suitable to their needs.
- Discover ways to capitalize on new sales opportunities.

Journey to Communication Effectiveness™ (JCE)

Communicating effectively with customers and peers alike is critical to the success of any organization – and the satisfaction of those involved. JCE delivers measurable benefits for people who interact with others. JCE utilizes scientifically proven participant self-assessments and 360-degree peer feedback to customize the experience for each attendee. This powerful program will help participants:

- Identify their communication style and the styles of their colleagues.
- Adapt to the needs of each communication style for greater effectiveness.
- Realize how their style influences their ability to build and maintain relationships that affect the bottom-line.
- Execute all types of communications more effectively in all environments.

Journey to Successful Negotiations™ (JSN)

The challenge of negotiating for sales people is to achieve certain financial and operational goals while preserving long-term relationships with clients and prospects. Conveying a positive, confident position relative to the negotiation process can overcome this challenge with extremely positive results. JSN empowers your people to achieve these objectives while making the negotiating process a relationship-enhancing experience. Through the principles and techniques of JSN, participants learn how to effectively:

- Understand when and how to position themselves for success in negotiations.
- Identify, understand, and respond to negotiating challenges and opportunities throughout the client's decision-making process.
- Overcome the various games, tactics, and ploys companies utilize to gain an advantage in negotiating.
- Elevate negotiations – and overall business relationships – from the competitive level to the more productive cooperative and collaborative levels.
- Leverage seven key sources of power prior to entering a negotiation process.
- Support and protect the interests and policies of the client's organization and their own.
- Weigh the economic advantages and disadvantages of various negotiating situations.
- Positively influence the tone and substance of negotiations and guide them toward optimal outcomes for both parties.

Outstanding facilitators, solid content, real-world application, and easy-to-use reinforcement resources are what make Journey Learning so exceptional and guarantee lasting results.
